TIGER LORE

1979

Alcona Community High School

Lincoln

You wonder . . .

. . . where all the time has gone.

Was that really me?

I didn't do that . . .

. . . did I?

We were such good friends . . .

Remember when . . .?

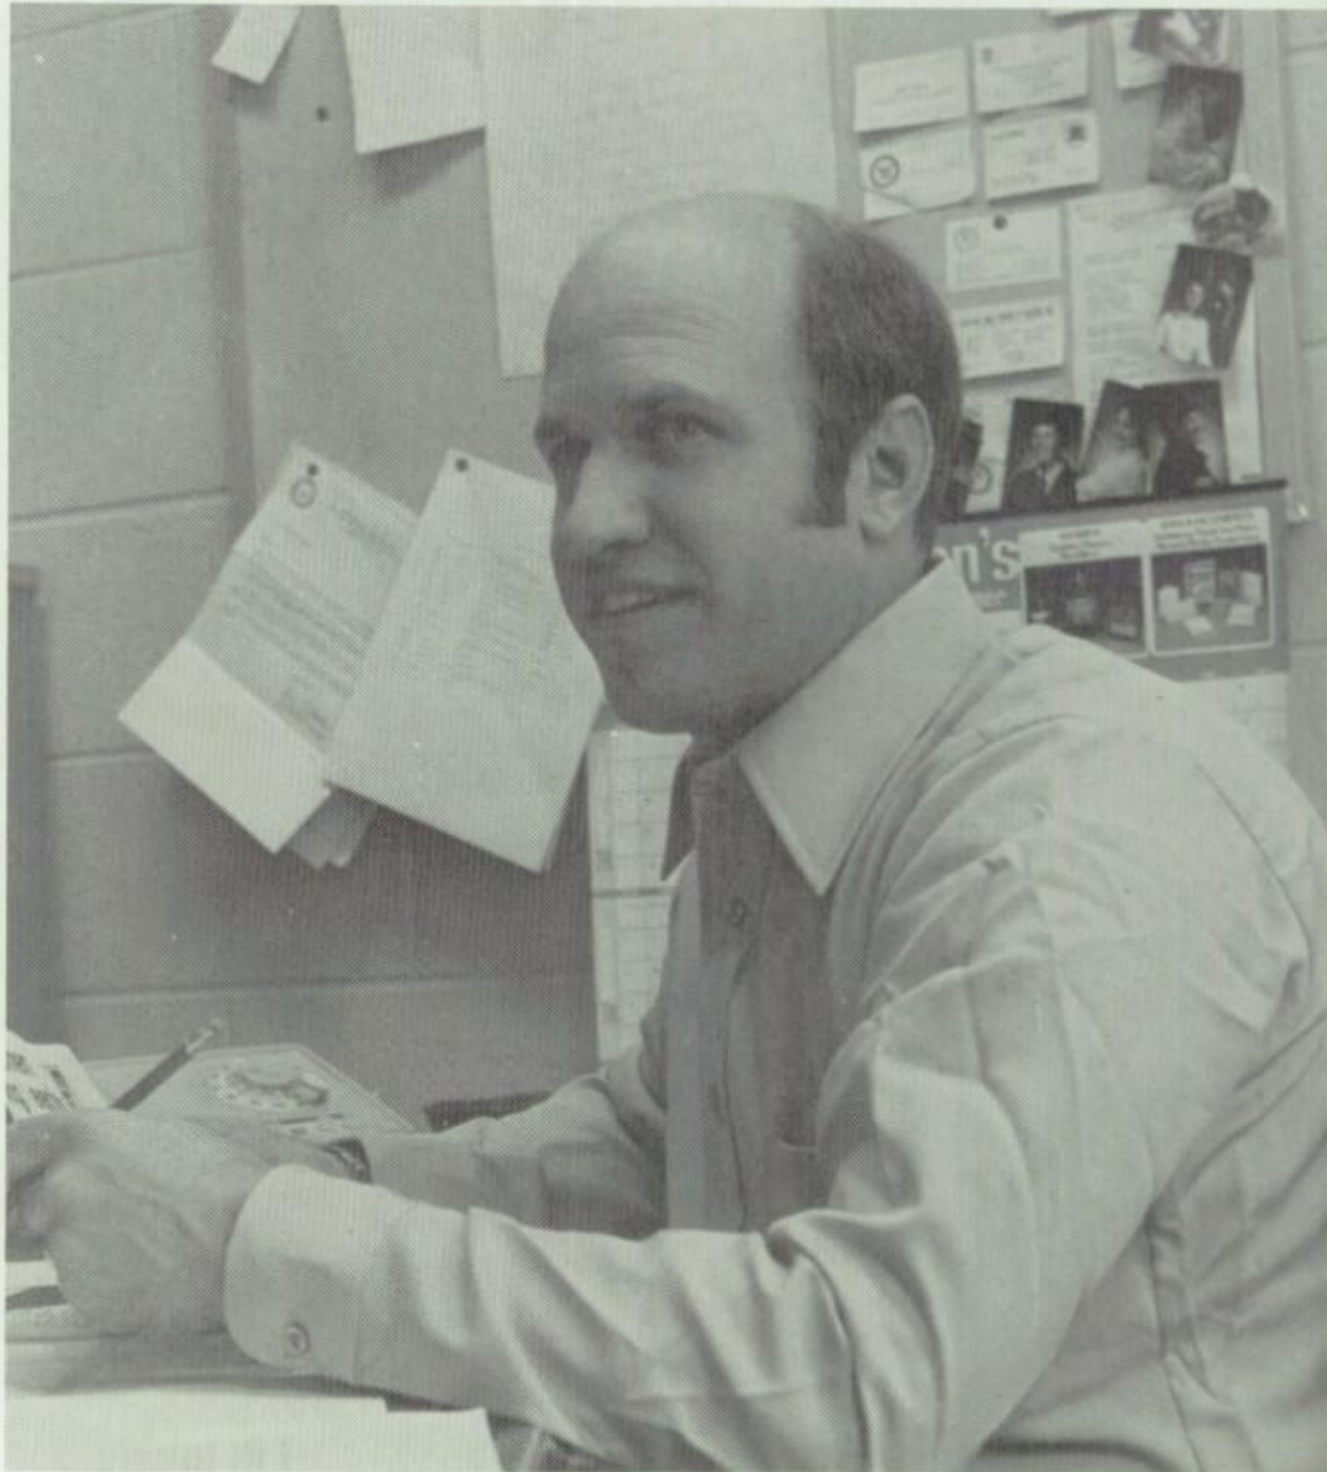

You wonder . . .

. . . where all the time has gone,
When you look back
Through the yearbook.

S. Wenzel

Dedication

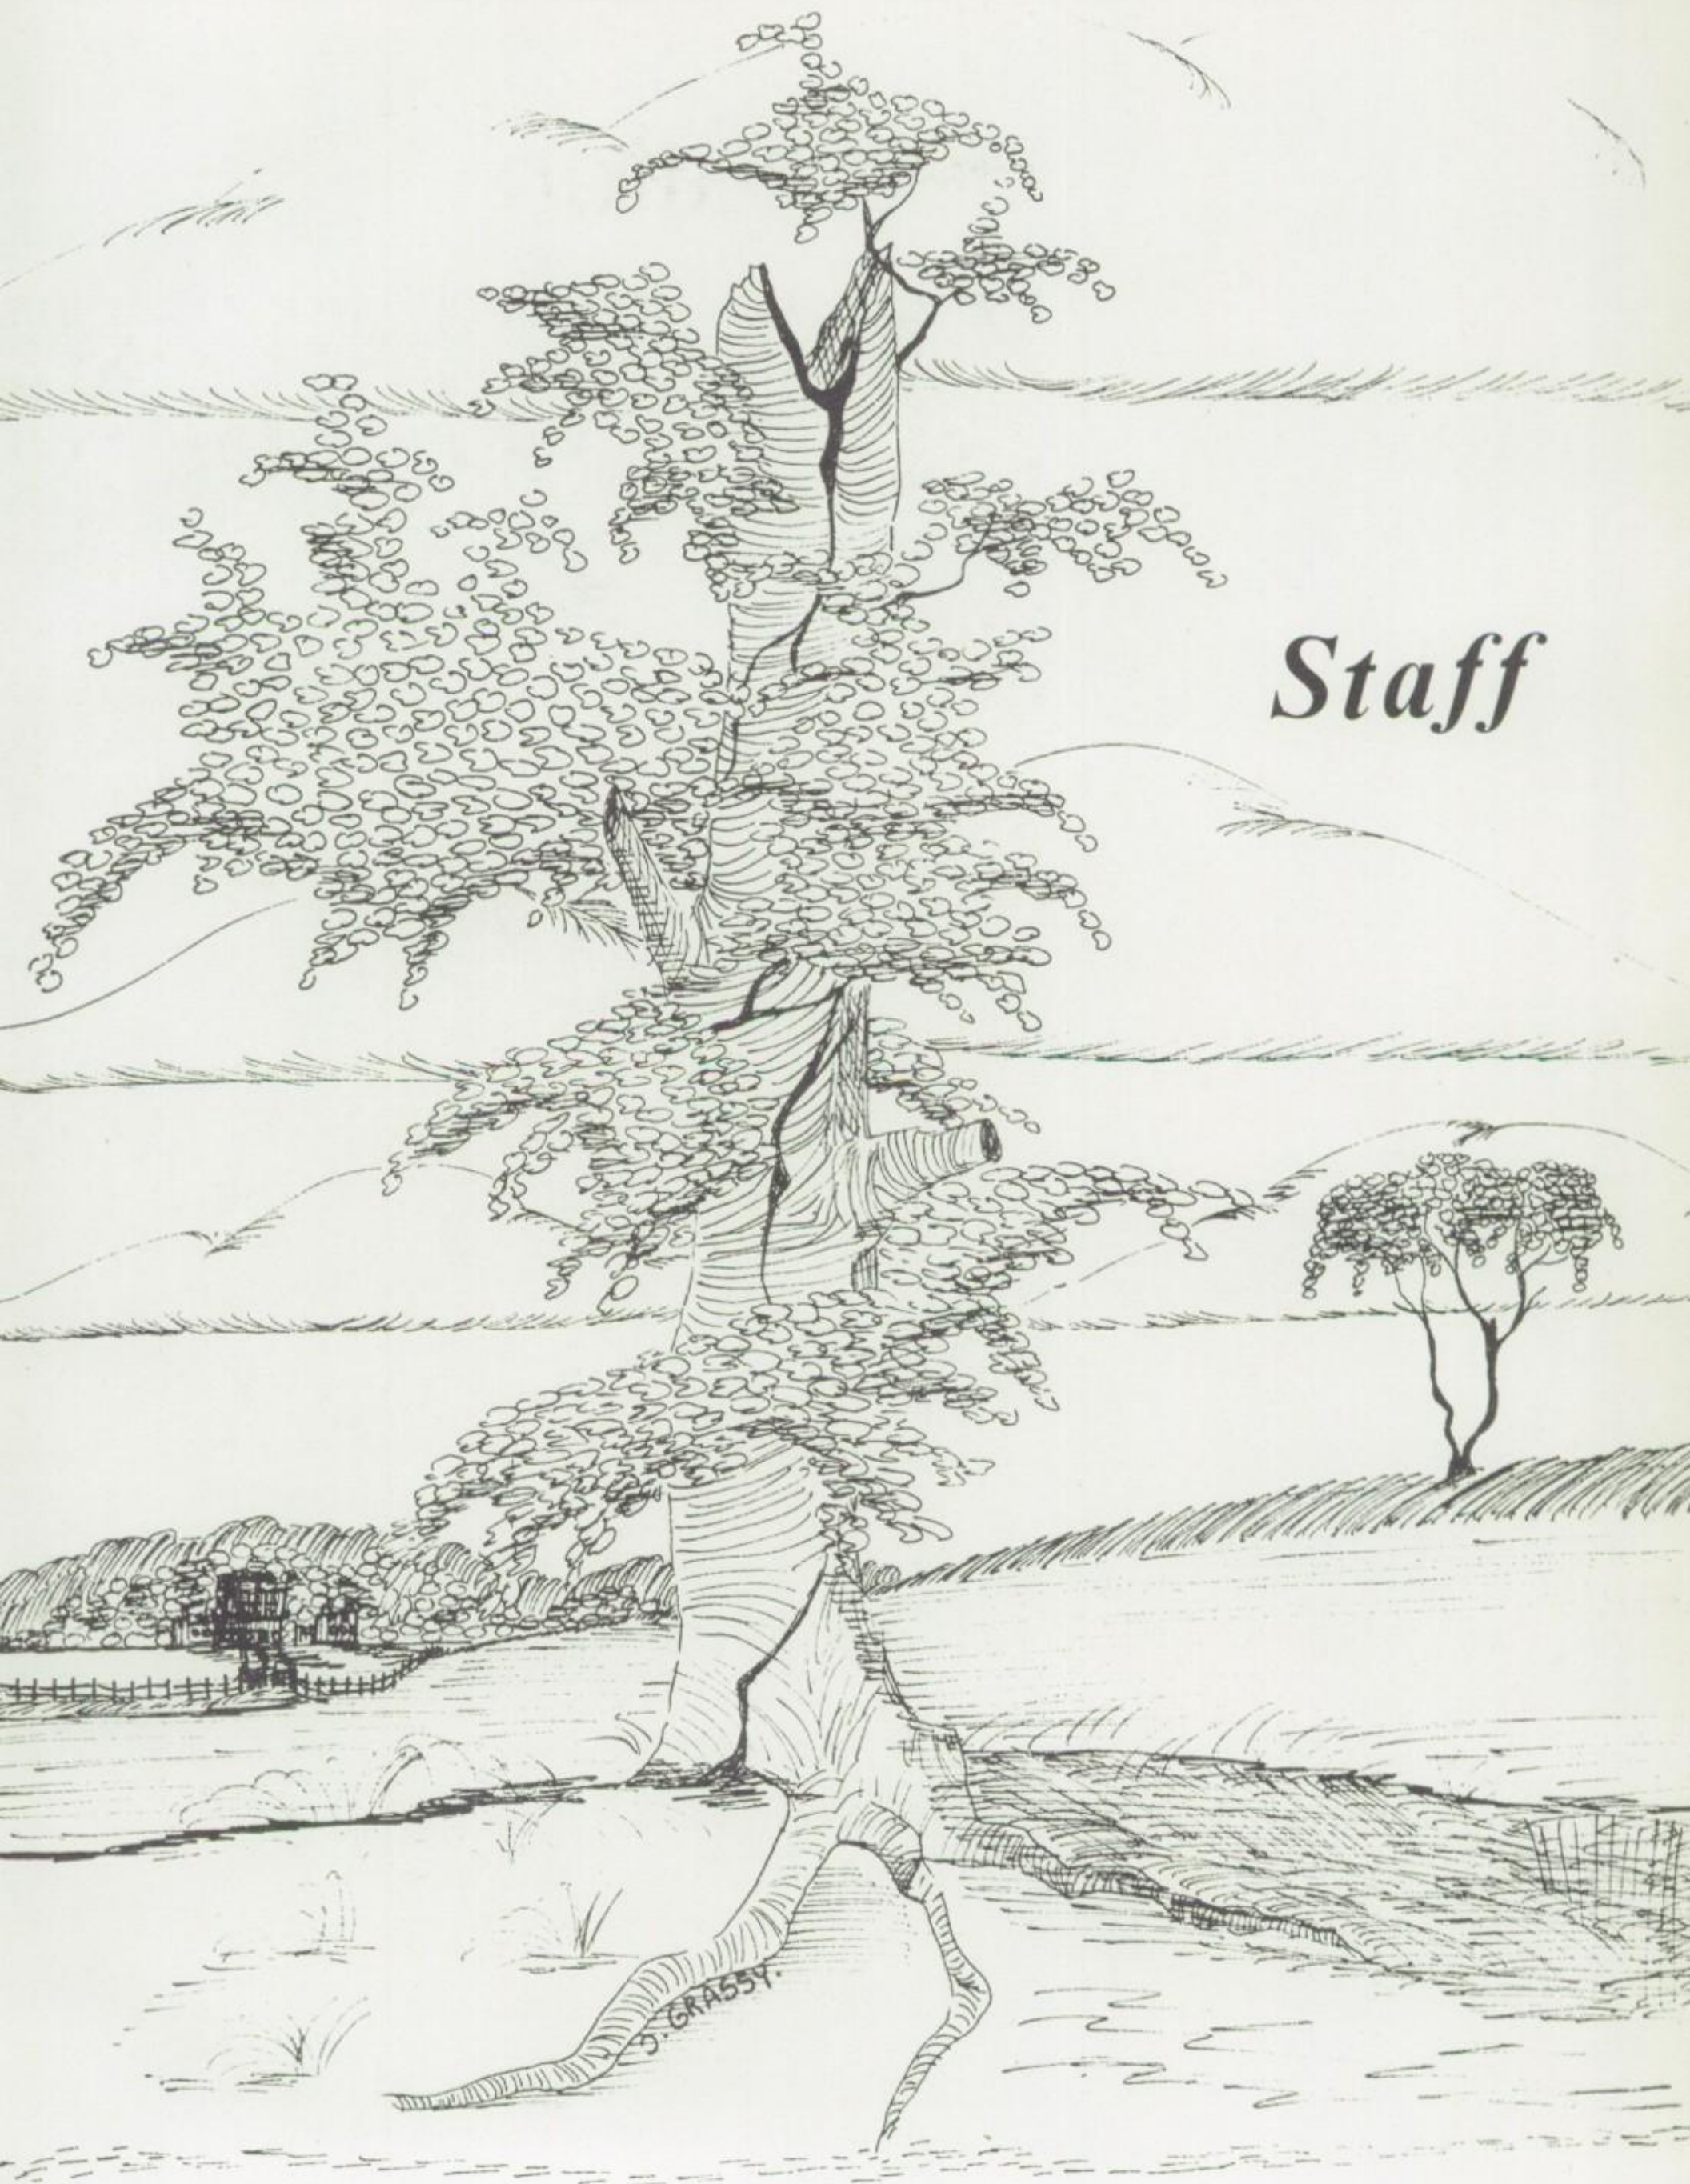

The 1979 Tiger Lore staff proudly dedicates this edition of our yearbook to Mr. Kenneth Behmer. Mr. Behmer has been the guidance counselor at Alcona for the past six years. He also serves as assistant varsity football coach and is one of our two track coaches.

No matter what hat he wears, in school or out, his courtesy, cheerfulness and genuine interest in students as people has made him almost universally liked and trusted.

Good luck, Mr. Behmer. We wish you every happiness in what we hope will be many more years at Alcona.

Yeah! You and who else is gonna make me?

All right, you can have next Tuesday evening.

We didn't know we had to eat it, too!

Why d'you suppose she's running?

You know what you can do with your ring!

And I thought I was gonna get to play football.

But I want a pass!

Watch him! He bites!

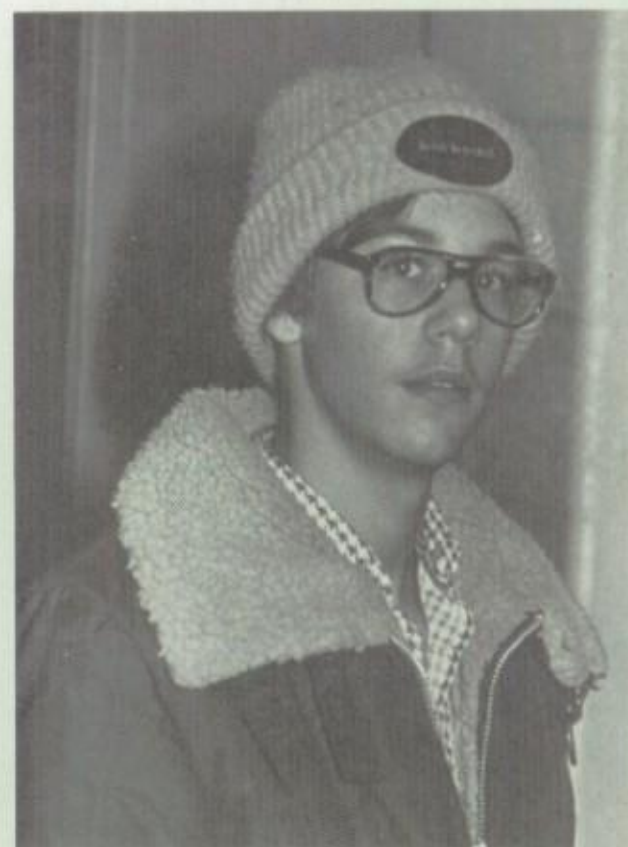

I didn't know this was the BOYS' locker room!

I thought this was automatic!

Think I could knock 'em over with just one breath?

Me? No, I'm not Robert Redford.

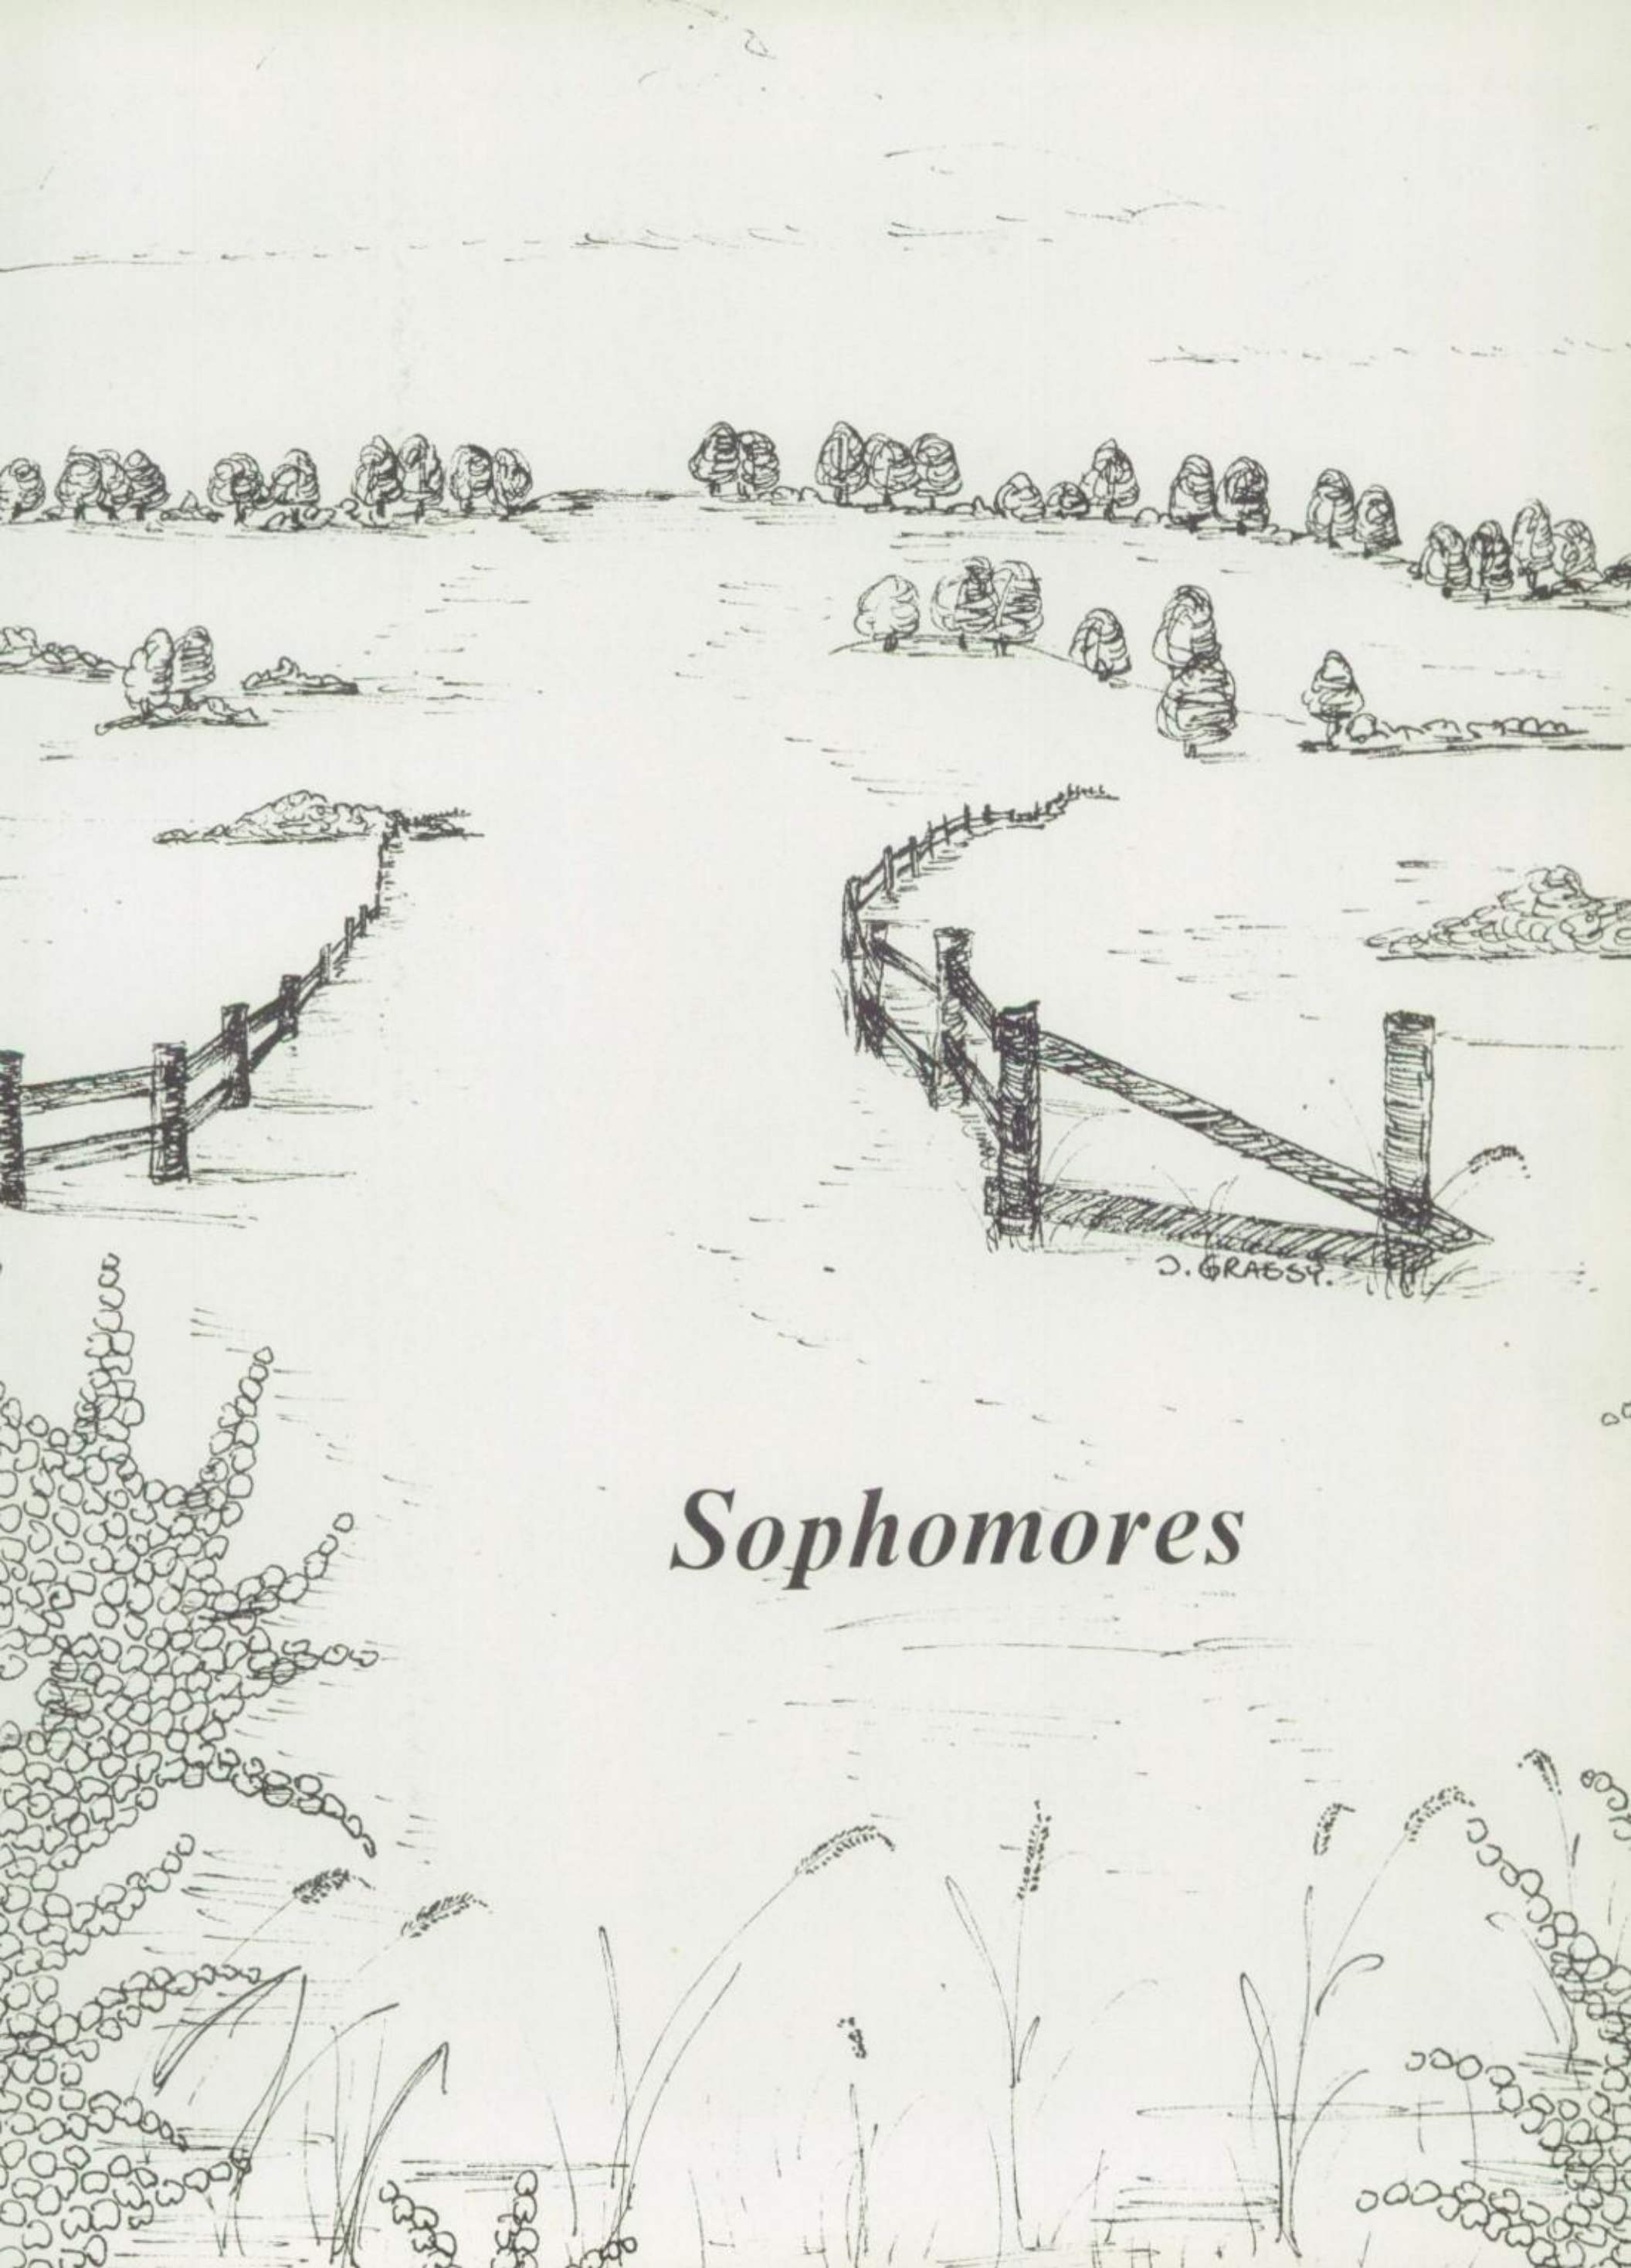

But, mama, I don't like Gerber's.

After all, Diane !

Were you speaking to me, mister?

It's my new double-breasted suit!

What is that strange odor?

Mr. Mancine!?!?!

I just don't know what made me do it.

It was that good, huh?

Food?

So my fingers don't walk so good!

Today Mr. Huntly instructs us in the fine art of tying shoelaces.

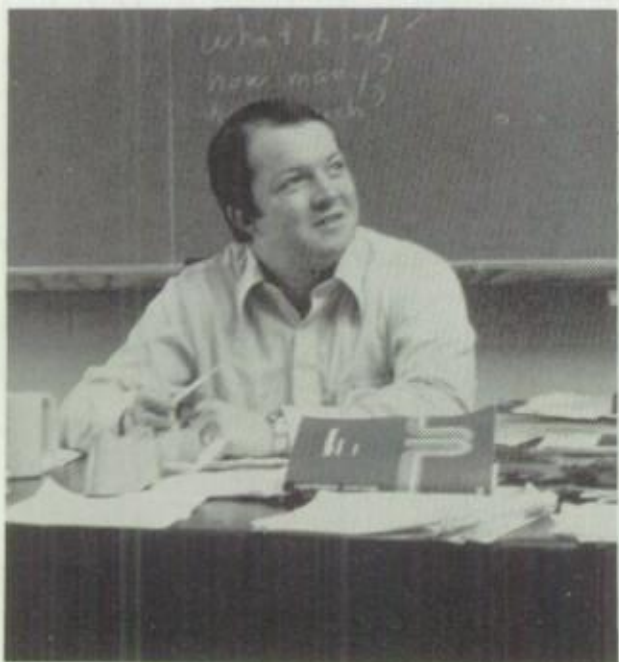

Hmm, that one over there's cuter!

I'm just so good!

Ya mean now we have to eat it?

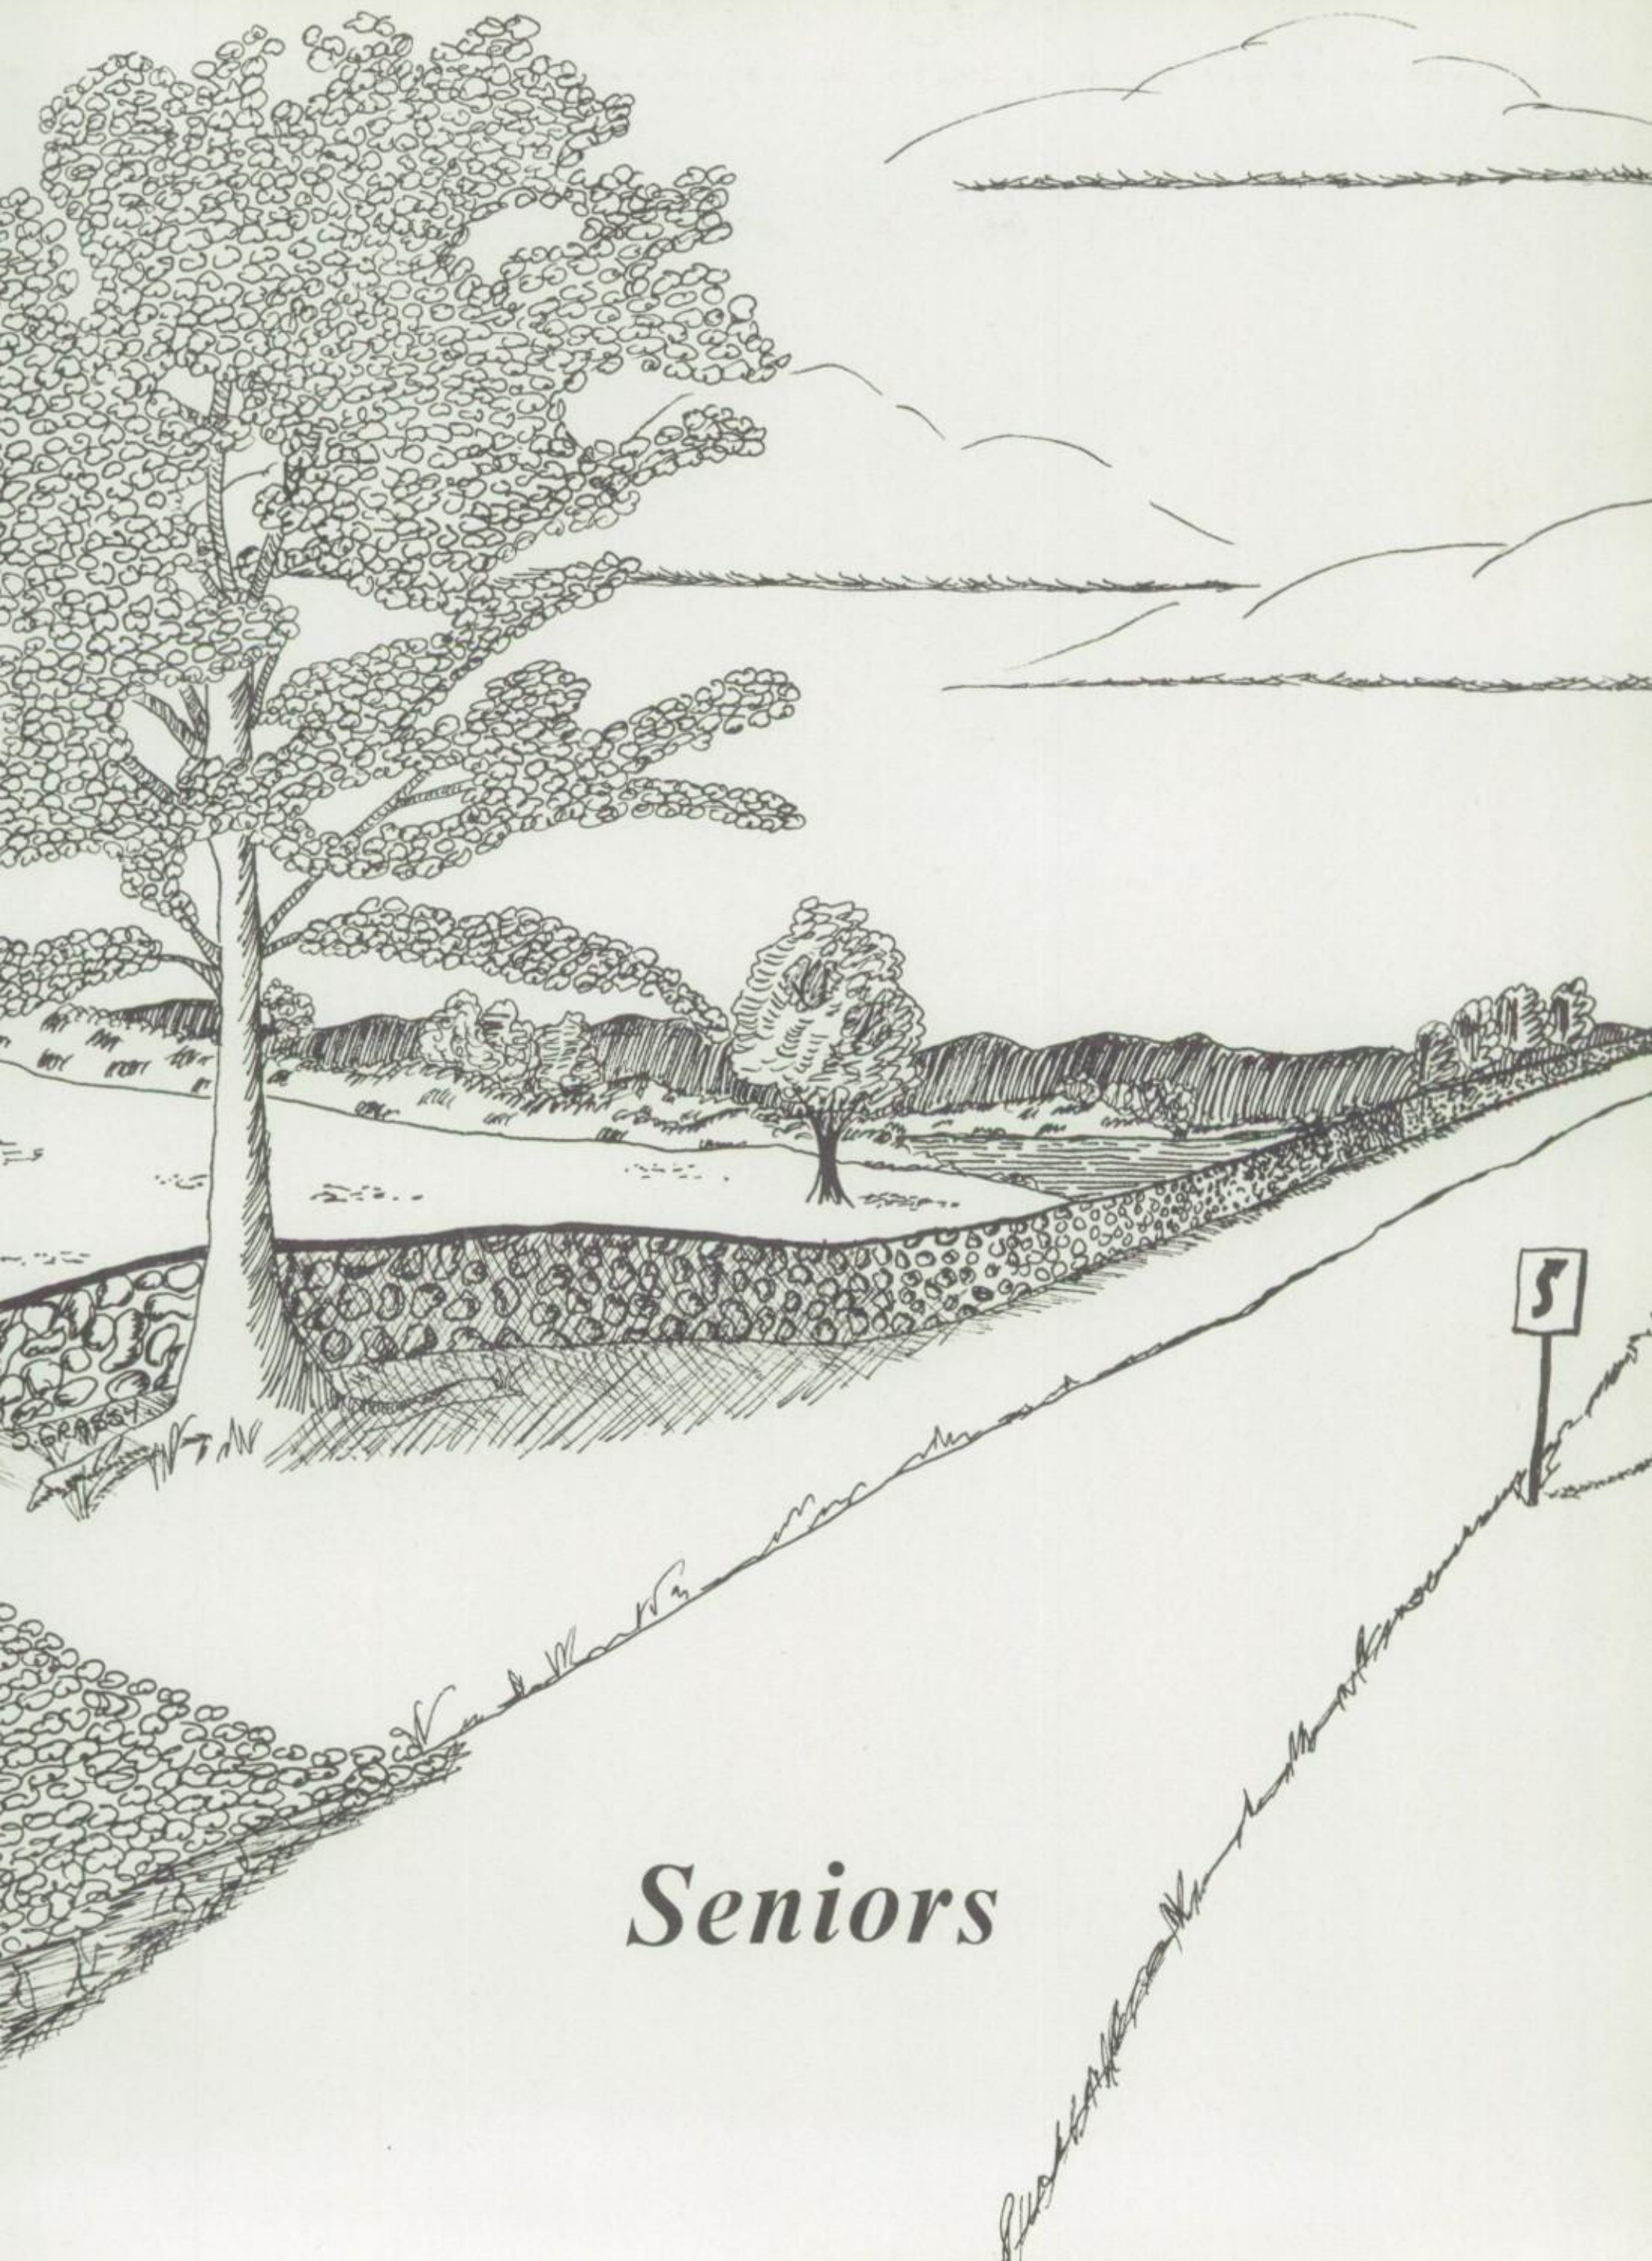

I'm always inspired by that passage.

Young Bob?

Snort!!!

- I, DAWN MARIE APSEY, will Miss Olding a man with good teeth and insurance; Michele and Mary success in their nursing career; Jill all the popcorn she'll ever want; Traci the ability not to stand in the lunch line for 15 minutes waiting for the biggest piece of cake and my ability to con Mom and Dad; Phil my understanding character and happiness in the life he chooses.
- I, NANCY ARMSTRONG, will to all my relations the ability to stay out of trouble and not do the things I did; to Carl C., Terry S., Scott B and Bruce V. the ability to party without getting caught; to Mr. Wozniak the urge to bring the trays back to the kitchen when he's done with them; and to everybody good luck after school.
- I, DOUG ATCHISON, of half-sound mind, bequeath one pair of tweezers and a magnifying glass to Mr. Swinson and my pig-footed bandicoot to Mr. Smith.
- I, ALICIA BIANCHI, will to Cin and Mar my place in Chet's heart; to Butts a puppy and a truckload of rug shampoo; to Latch a real knight in shining armor this time; to Diggers our street corner; to Teen another of Those Nights and a Pennsylvania guy, for sure.
- I, CATHY BRUSKE, will to Mr. Herek my Polish Power, and to all the bums of Lincoln, Barton City and Harrisville my ability to stay out of trouble.
- I, RENEE BUSHEY, will to Rob T. my pair of tweezers and magnifying glass with hope he and Kelly can find what they're looking for; to Kelly B. a case of T. J. Swann and the best time with Curt at 17.
- I, JEFF CATTIN, will to Delynn all my love and good luck in the next two years. I also will to Mr. Swinson skunk scent to match his skunk hat.
- I, TAMARA S. CLARK, will to Sherry all the excuses I used for getting home at 3:00 AM, my ability to play basketball, and all my luck so she leads her team to a State championship; to Cindy a bottle of Kaopectate before every game and her own private bathroom; to Andrew 100 stolen kisses in the dark of the night under the steps; to Coach Miknis my ability to get along with everyone; to Wes another crazy bus buddy who'll give him as many laughs as I did; to Tim my ability to go out and leave my fishing pole at home; to Shawn best of luck in her senior year; to everyone else the crazy times I had at Alcona.
- I, DENISE DELLAR, will to Brenda, Kim, Judy and Larry all the love and happiness in the world; to Dewey an honest girl friend and a fast race car; to my sister good luck, for she will need it.
- I, LINDA DURFEE, will my ability to be absent and still pass to Candy McCulloch, and I will my good cooking to Mr. Etzler.
- I, TAMMY ELLER, will to Curlers the ability to conquer her habitual 'eye-dropping' and many thanks for all the laughs we had this year; to Poopers the ability not to interrupt a person while they are talking, four cases of Clairol Super-Hold, and 100 more Hermies; to John Karsen a round trip to Nashville, Tennessee and a reserved audition for the Gong Show; to Tammy Clark all the memories we've had since kindergarten; to Sally the ability not to say "I'm sorry" so much; to anyone who wants it, our 'lobby pole'; to Mr. Huntly a freezer full of fruitcakes; a la senorita Ajo, siete mas estudiantes del cuatro ano que estan tan buenas y bonitas que estabamos; to Andy a new corner in the cafeteria?!

- I, LINDA GRAFF, will to my sister Jean the ability to turn red easily; a la senorita Ajo todas las tartas de frutas en el mundo; to Jeff M. may beagles haunt you for the rest of your life, and all the luck in the world; to Mary W. another treasure hunt; to Mr. Petrovich the ability to plagiarize my sister's notes and not get caught, and also a million handshakes; to David F. a deep friendship that lasts forever; to Lachell S. the care and understanding of a true friend; to Kevin F. and Chuck S., my brothers, that our family may be reunited again, and all the good times we have had together; to everyone else a smile that will get you through the year.
- I, KELLY GRANDY, will to Mr. Smith my first Pulitzer award; to Miss Olding a prince with straight teeth and an old privy; to Mr. Etzler my ability to procrastinate and all my love; to Mary W. a "wild and crazy guy"; to Kevin E. the door to reality; to Carol O. a gallon of gin and Squirt; to Rodney K. my collection of Grimus glasses filled with "lemonade"; to Dawn T. a trip to the Medical Center; to Jill R. the art of not getting involved; to Diane L. a refill on her B.C. mints; to Bonnie M. the strings of security; to Tina K. my listening ear and dry throat; to Tracy G. the loves and hates of high school; to all my friends the gift of sanity; to the world, look out!
- I, SHELLY HOFFMEYER, will to Alicia a rug and a puppy; to Dawn and Kelly the power to tell each other they're loved ones; to Linda someone to go on excursions with; to Ginger the ability to have fun; to Art one-fourth of my brains; to Rachel the skill, charisma and pep to be a cheerleader; to Jamie, Eric and a class ring; to Becky, Lisa and Tina a new hot dog; to all future cheerleaders as much fun as I've had; to my family a new daughter, niece, aunt and sister; to Mr. Petrovich the initiative to want seniors like me because they'll always be such a challenge; to Brian a fantastic future and all my love.
- I, DIANE JENKS, being of sound mind, will the following: to Diann Janssen the hope that her dream will come true—that everyone including Mr. Mick will spell her name right; to Yvette my sister, the courage to speak up and out before she reaches her senior year.
- I, JOHN KARSEN, will to Cheryl Koon and Tammy Smeller some guys to hang onto and squeeze instead of the pole in the lobby; to Tina Buttlin a white mouse, a tree, and W. W. because "He loves you, honey!"; to Kelly Gruntly that she may ride with me in a car; to Debbie Pooper the ability to drive and use the brake; to Michele Snead lessons in getting a Christmas tree; to Diann Brainssen, to supply anyone with corn nuts; to Andrea Loyer, more fantasies that he can think up; to Shawn Somers, that he may sing "See, See, Rider"; to anyone else that I forgot that they may see me riding in Elvis' big blue 6-door Mercedes-Benz limousine, white 6-door Cadillac limousine, and black Stutz Blackhawk, or any of the over 4000 cars he has bought; and to the school, I'll keep my memories.
- I, KAREN KINNEE, will to K. N. all my love; to Diane L. my ability to be crazy; to Alicia B. the ability to carry on the tradition of always calling everyone "Hon"; to Tina K. the ability to control my liquor and stay out of trouble; and to Lachell S. the effort to get out and have fun.
- I, TINA KRUTTLIN, will to Alicia another one of those nights, my ear, and my ability to know when not to blow the horn; to Kim (KLML) a key ring, a mug, possession of our cap collection, my ability to grab strings, and a game of pass-out; to Cindy many more nights in the park; to Rod my ability not to get stuck; to Pam the ability not to bite the end off her cigars; to Kelly many more mornings; to Laurel a lunch hour free from Mike Morris and Kevin Johnson; to Karen her very own calculator; to Robin a back-scratching license so she won't have to worry about Mr. Petrovich yelling; and to John the best of luck with his Elvis career.
- I, CHERYL KUEHN, will to Smeller my ability to be irritable and a sincere thanks for making my senior year a happy one; to John "Elvis" Karsen the ability to shake your hips without seriously hurting yourself, and the withdrawal from playing P.P.; to Andy my height; to Nancy my knowledge of cars; to Troopers my height and honest thanks for the friendship of Claire Harmon; to Mr. Huntly someone to take the name of "Fluffy" and my fishing ability; to Ellen our everlasting friendship; to Eric my love and ability to get through school; to Jim and my parents thanks for the love, tolerance, and support; and the best of luck to Buzz, Traci, John W., Mark S., and all at Alcona.
- I, DIANE LANGE, will to Mr. Etzler a dozen art students like me; to Ken H. the heater in my Subaru and all my love and friendship forever; to Lachell S. all the conversations we had about "Bird"; to Karen K. many thanks for the good times and giving me Osacr; to Kelly G. needed thanks for giving me a refill of BC Tic-Tacs; to Carol O. the understanding of what friends mean to me, my $1400 stereo, and my heat-censored watch; to Mrs. Kilgore the joys of the upcoming school years and the ability to keep her tongue in her mouth; to Tammy G. the best of luck in the future and many more great Saturday nights at South Shore Inn; and to all my kids lots of love in the future.

- I, GEORGE LANGENBURG, will my superb driving ability to Doug A.; also, my entire body and soul, along with my beer can collection, to anyone who is in need of such perfection; and, lastly, I, George Langenburg, WILL!
- I, KAREN LOYD, will to Cindy and Steph the willpower to make it through their senior year straight; to Andrea R. my ability to make it through Alcona without becoming a jock; to my brother John the ability to even make it through this school (hoping I didn't corrupt the Loyd name); to Mr. Syrett clones of the B. C. beauties; to Mr. Herek the ability to stay as crazy as he is without ever being high; and to my best friend Tam the ability to make it through college without me.
- I, BONNIE MATUZAK, will to the "B" someone to run the office as well as I; to Tammy a home remedy for shinsplints; to Mar a pet dino so she'll never be lonely; to Randy the best kitchen money can buy; a big thanks to everyone who made me smile; and to Jill, Skinner and Kelly more love than they'll ever know.
- I, RENEE MINKLEY, being of almost sane mind, bequeath to Kelly M. more patience with my taste in guys; to Gus an anti-molesting device; to Dawn P. 5'11", blonde hair, blue eyes; to Lachell S. my orange lip gloss; finally, to my sister, the ability to stay out of trouble (God only knows I never had it).
- I, TINA MILTZ, will to Mr. Syrett my great teaching ability; to Darla M. my ability to spell without a dictionary; to Mr. Mick my good sense of humor; to my little brother the best of luck in the future; and to Chris all my love forever.
- I, SUE OUILLET, will my ability to come to school every day of the year to Scott Deutschel.
- I, DAWN LEE PERKINS, will to Renee G. M. or K. M. (if she ever makes up her mind which one she likes better); to Shelly the ability to quit breaking up with Brian; to Lachell my clothes; to my brother Steve all of his clothes back I "borrowed"; and to Carol much happiness.
- I, TAMMY RANGER, will to Andrea my government notes and the ability to make it through Alcona without going insane; to Cindy and Steph the ability to last through their senior year without getting caught smoking; to Herek the ability to ride the same bus and live in the same town as F's without killing them; to Syrett 35 more B. C. Babes to make his teaching days more exciting; to Miknis a winning football team (the 1979 Powder-puffers); to Petrovich a classroom of psychos; to Karen the ability to stay single for at least five years; and to everyone else the ability to break as many rules as Karen and I did and get away with it.
- I, KEVIN ROZANEK, will to my good party pal Terry Schiellerd the razor blade he lost in my car while he was stoned; to Tim Link a pair of binoculars so he won't get caught by any teachers anymore; to Jim Beck a green Martian and a bottle of wine.
- I, DAVID SAMUEL, will all of my wit and character and the meaning of "B.F." to Mr. Herek; another verse of the song "Mick Mouse's Physics Zoo" to Mr. Mick; to Bonnie M. my recipe for chocolate chip cookies; to Brian L. the memory of our joint effort in getting stuck at one o'clock in the morning on a perfectly good road; mostly, to my best friend Lachell S. my ability at listening, and especially my art of starting the week with a smile and making it last until the end of the week.
- I, LARRY SCHRAM, will to Mr. Mancine a new fishnet; to K. W., Sir J. J.; to Tom L. my ability not to bruise his brass; to Tom K. my working talents; and to D. D. a lifetime of happiness and love.
- I, LACHELL SCHROEDER, will to my sister the ability to go out with a guy and not get into a fight; to my only V.P.X., Alicia B., lots of memories of prospects and drool, slurp, sigh, swoon, etc.; to Diane L. the very rarest of the bird species; and to Wayne F. the crummy date that he stood me up on two years in a row!
- I, DEBBIE THROOP, will to Tammy E. my ability to really listen, be considerate, and never interrupt when someone is telling about their true life experiences; to Cheryl K. my eagerness and determination to achieve the world's record (I would have made it if it hadn't been for those situps) and most of all an invitation to a once-in-a-lifetime happening—to see my room clean; to Sally M. a card with my signature engraved, to make up for the one I forgot on the picture; to Sherri K. my shoe store, which is my pleasure; to my sister Dana my ability to act crazy without being embarrassed; to Alicia B. a wardrobe of drip-dry clothes since she's used mine so often.
- I, MARY WNUK, will to Mr. Petrovich all the commentary he'll ever need and a toupee made out of my frumpy hair; to Linda my undivided attention whenever we may go to Mexico together; to Lisa five inches of my height; to Alicia the weight that goes with the five inches I'm willing to Lisa; to Chris my "clean" bedroom; to Debbie (alias Mrs. Maytag) my ability to be slow instead of dumb; to la bonita profesora, unas alumnas que pueden corregir papeles como yo y Elisa; to Cindy my ability not to get emotionally involved; and to Mr. Smith a round trip to Ork and a big thanks for being such a dear friend.

This one's for Jack Nicklaus.

Don't look now, Renee, but there's something big and furry behind you!

Where d'ya put the nickel in?

Hey, Wayne, he's got a camera.

The Senior Powderpuffers roared past the Juniors in an exciting game which ended with a decisive 28-8 Senior win. Senior quarterback Cheryl Kuehn took the snap and handed off to Karen Kinnee for the first Senior score. Shortly before halftime Kuehn passed to Tammy Eller for another tally, followed by a two-point conversion. The Juniors started hard in the 2nd half when quarterback Roxanne Sherwood found an opening and raced 40 yards for a score. The Juniors then followed up with their own two-point conversion by Kristi Rasmussen, but that was the end of their game. The Seniors iced their own cake with two more TD's made by Tammy Ranger and Tammy Eller. The guy cheerleaders added a lot of enthusiasm and humor throughout the game, if not a lot of talent. Congratulations, Seniors, on a job well done, and good luck next year, Juniors!

And you said I look funny upside down!

Sporting a better record than the varsity, the junior Tigers rolled up their season at 6 and 2. They looked strong against all but their last two opponents, Onaway and Tawas, which gives good promise of future power in the varsity.

The Alcona varsity gridders finished their '78 football season with a 3-6 record. Leading off the season with victories over Caseville and Au Gres, the Tigers fell into a four-game losing streak before crushing Ellsworth 42-0 before a cheering homecoming crowd. Their season ended with two more losses, however, to Whittemore-Prescott and Owendale.

1978 Football Homecoming

The 1978 football homecoming was a smashing success. Tammy Clark reigned over the festivities after she was crowned by 1977 queen Mary Weinke. Tammy's court was made up of Alicia Bianchi, Linda Shiemke, Shawn Swayze, Karen Kinnee, Nancy Beck, and Julie Weaver. At the homecoming assembly, in the midst of the skits, "Tiger Spirit" dropped in from the gym rafters, and Coach Miknis very nearly brought them down by predicting a 42-0 win over Ellsworth. The Tigers did their best, and it was almost good enough. Final tally for the game fell only 6 points short as Alcona rolled to a 42-0 shut-out. The traditional homecoming dance rounded out the day for a tired but happy crowd.

Coach Wozniak's Junior Tigerettes closed out their season with a little better than a .500 average, posting 10 wins against 9 losses. The girls finished hard, with 5 straight wins. The big gain for the year came in terrific talent improvement. This should keep both the JV and Varsity squads top contenders in '79.

The 1978 basketball season was one of broken records in almost every way for the Tigerettes. Ten fine athletes combined their abilities and enthusiastic dedication to the game enroute to a season record of 22-3. The team posted 17 regular season wins for the finest record at Alcona and put together a 13-game winning streak on their way to District and Regional championships.

Total team effort was the key to the success of the 1978 Tigerettes. Every player was totally committed to the team's success and did her part to bring our goals to reality. In my twelve seasons of coaching basketball at Alcona High School, this had to be the best—not only in terms of winning games, but also in terms of team dedication. The girls played all season with real enthusiasm which displayed their love for the game. We dedicated the season to Beth McGregor, one of the finest athletes ever to play basketball for Alcona. The season truly exemplified her love for and ability to play the game.

In the space above there should be a picture, instead of just initials. It should be a picture of four very special gals, who this year did a very special job. The four are Dawn Townsend and Dawn Apsey, Carol Osdras and Kelly Grandy. Their job was cheerleading for our Tigerette basketball teams—and with the record the varsity squad ran up, it became one of the longest seasons ever. And why no picture? It's one of those comedies of errors that give yearbook editors gray hair—a picture that should have been taken and wasn't; should have been retaken and wasn't; and, finally, no picture. We offer apologies to the girls, and thanks for the job they did.

The 1978-79 season was discouraging for the freshman Tigers. All the time and practice and effort just wouldn't seem to come together. The 3-10 season record looks worse than the team really is, and as many of these boys move on to another year of play the results should be quite different.

When tournaments rolled around, this was not the year of the tiger. With a 15-5 season, our team was a much better organization than the tourney record suggests. But every coach knows, "In tournament play anything can happen." It did, and it was all wrong; a sad ending for our seniors. For the other players, and "King Bob", next year has to be better.

Winter Carnival

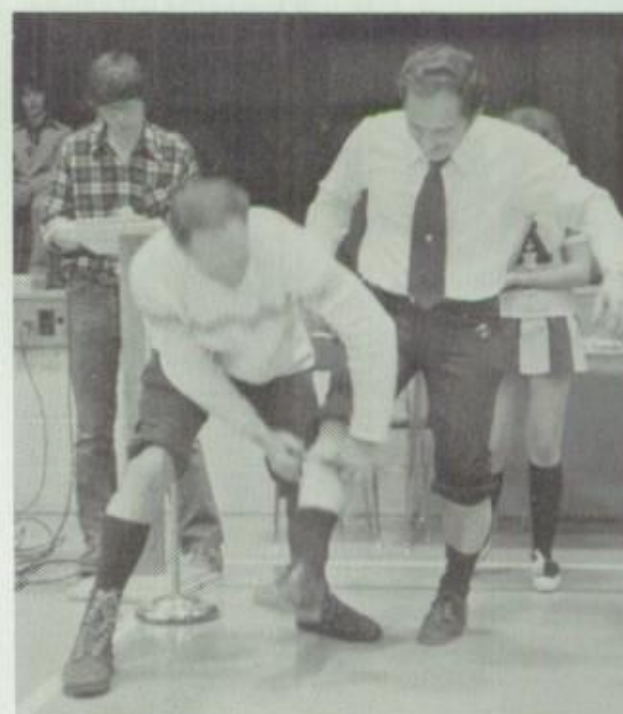

The 1979 Winter Carnival had a hard time getting started. The main activities were postponed twice because of heavy snow, but finally got off the ground. At the carnival basketball game King Doug Emington and Queen Sally Moran were formally introduced. With them were the court of Lachell Schroeder, Robin McCulloch, Linda Graff and Renee Bushey in the Queen's court; Wayne Romatz, Randy Samuel, Ron McCahill and Tom Weichel as attendants to the King.

The snow sculptures this year showed more imagination than any other year. A sudden hard thaw took some of the fine points off the winning sophomore sculpture of King Basketball, but didn't do too much harm to the senior and freshman entries. The juniors this year never got much beyond the snow-throwing stage, so had no entry for judging. The Tiger Lore staff, on its own, has also awarded an honorable mention to Woody. His sculpture, in the corner behind the senior entry, was entitled "Snowy Mountain Viewed Through Cherry Tree".

The 1979 Mr. Legs contest was longer than normal this year, due to the postponements, but this just gave the contestants more time to stuff the ballot box. Here the outgoing Mr. Legs, Mr. VanDam, struggles to get the magic garter on this year's winner, Mr. Dellar. The rest of the carnival assembly was full of skits and fun, but the skits were not the usual kind. Once again, the key was imagination and new ideas. There were quiz shows and talk shows

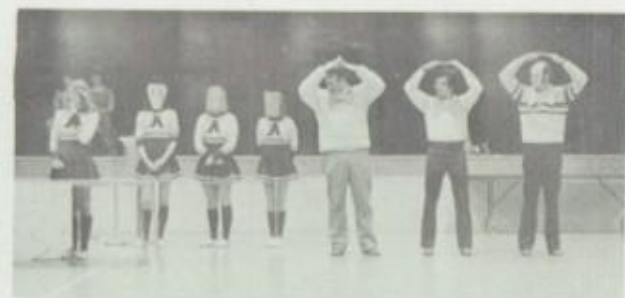

..... the seniors came up with a truly fantastic rendition of "King Bob", starring Kelly Grandy and Mary Wnuk, with their own choral backup group

..... the juniors unveiled their own mad scientist and his machine to manufacture basketball players

..... the cheerleaders stopped the entire show with a couple of their skits. Here we have a candy shop. In the center are three gum drops. The three on the right? What else but suckers, of course

..... and here are the start and the finish of the famous Blindfolded Banana-Eating Contest. Eddie Hart was the winner, by a big bunch

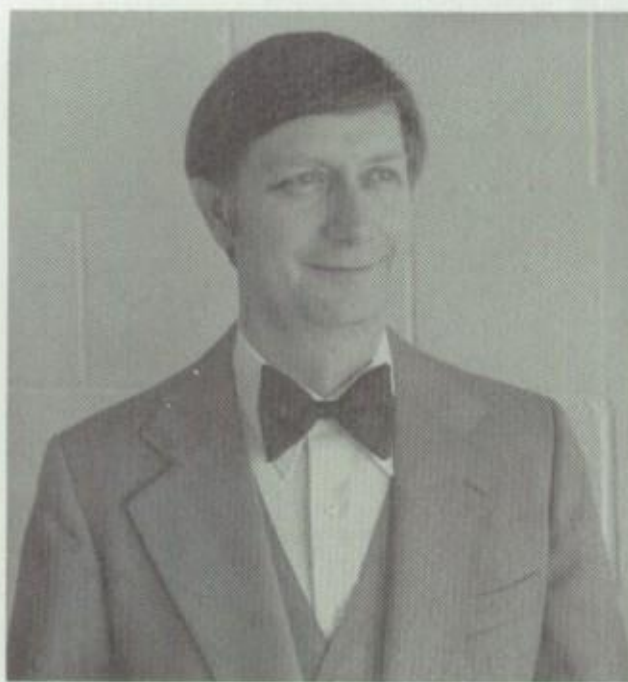

Dress days during carnival week kept the creative theme going. One of our biggest regrets is that Sister Mary eluded our cameras all day on Career Day. Mobster Day brought Kelly Grandy and Dawn Apsey as Bonnie and Clyde; Lisa McKay as ?????; and the whole group as a scruffy looking out fit.

Winter Carnival 1979 has come and gone, but it has left some high marks for everyone to shoot at in 1980. For creativity and good fun it was the best carnival yet.

Editors' Page

Another year has gone by, but for us seniors it isn't just any year—it's a turning point in our lives. It marks a time to which we never really can return, but which we can look back upon with fond, or perhaps not so fond, memories.

Memories are what this yearbook is all about—cover-to-cover memories of friends and teachers, clubs, activities, sports, classes, and all the crazy goof-around times sandwiched in between. We couldn't include all we would have liked to, but we hope what we have is enough.

We want to thank everyone who helped to make this book possible—our staff, the advertisers and patrons, and all you photogenic clowns who obligingly hopped in front of our cameras. Our special thanks to Jackie 'Grassy' for the unique and talented artwork gracing our division pages.

And a very special thanks to a very special person, our own Mr. Frederick, our advisor. His boundless patience, immeasurable knowledge, and sharp wit have been deeply appreciated, especially in moments of stress—and we've had plenty of those!

But we owe the most to all of you—the students who make this school what it is—who have made the years, and most especially this one, so memorable.
